

CLIMIES TRACK

TRACK NOTES:

Heading down the western Explorer, the ORAS team begin their journey in Corrina before making their way onto the Climies Track. The Western Explorer used to be known as the road to nowhere, and if you ask us, that sounds like the best way to start an adventure! The Climies track on the other hand is known in every 4WDing circle as one worthy of a place on the bucket list! If you're into spectacular vistas, historic sites or low range 4WD adventure, then this is the location for you!

DISTANCE: 140km

NEARBY TRACKS: Sandy Cape Track, Balfour Track
